Instructions:

1. Please avoid unnecessary/irrelevant details.
2. You must answer the questions not CLOs

[CLO 1: Describe the Historical Understanding of the Sub-continent]

Q1: The Muslims ruled South Asia for several centuries, leading to the emergence and consolidation of a distinct Muslim nation in the region. Critically examine the historical evolution of the Muslim nation in South Asia while keeping in mind the major factors that shaped its identity. Provide evidences to support your arguments. [15 marks]

[CLO 2: Analyze the Historical, Ideological, and Political Foundations of the Two Nation Theory]

Q2. The creation of Pakistan marked a turning point in the history of the Indian subcontinent, fundamentally reshaping the region's demography and politics. This inception is widely understood as the outcome of the Two-Nation Theory. Discuss how the development of the Two-Nation Theory contributed to the emergence of Pakistan, with reference to the contributions of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan, Allama Iqbal, and Muhammad Ali Jinnah. [15 marks]
